April 26, 2018 at HVCC TEC-SMART, Malta, NY

For 2018, the CDRPC Spring Workshop has selected “Community and Economic Development” as its theme. This year’s workshop will feature a plenary session with CDRPC and CEG, “Unpacking Amazon: Why the Capital Region had a compelling case for Amazon HQ2 and what’s next.”

There will be an morning coffee social, a welcome and opening plenary, one concurrent session, lunch for all attendees, and a final concurrent session. The workshop is targeted to elected officials, planning and economic development professionals, grant seekers, planning board and zoning board of appeals members, and more. This day-long workshop will provide you with the opportunity to network with potential clients and customers. Your sponsorship will ensure that this event will allow us to deliver a cost-effective program to our region’s stakeholders.
